The nZEB Roadshow

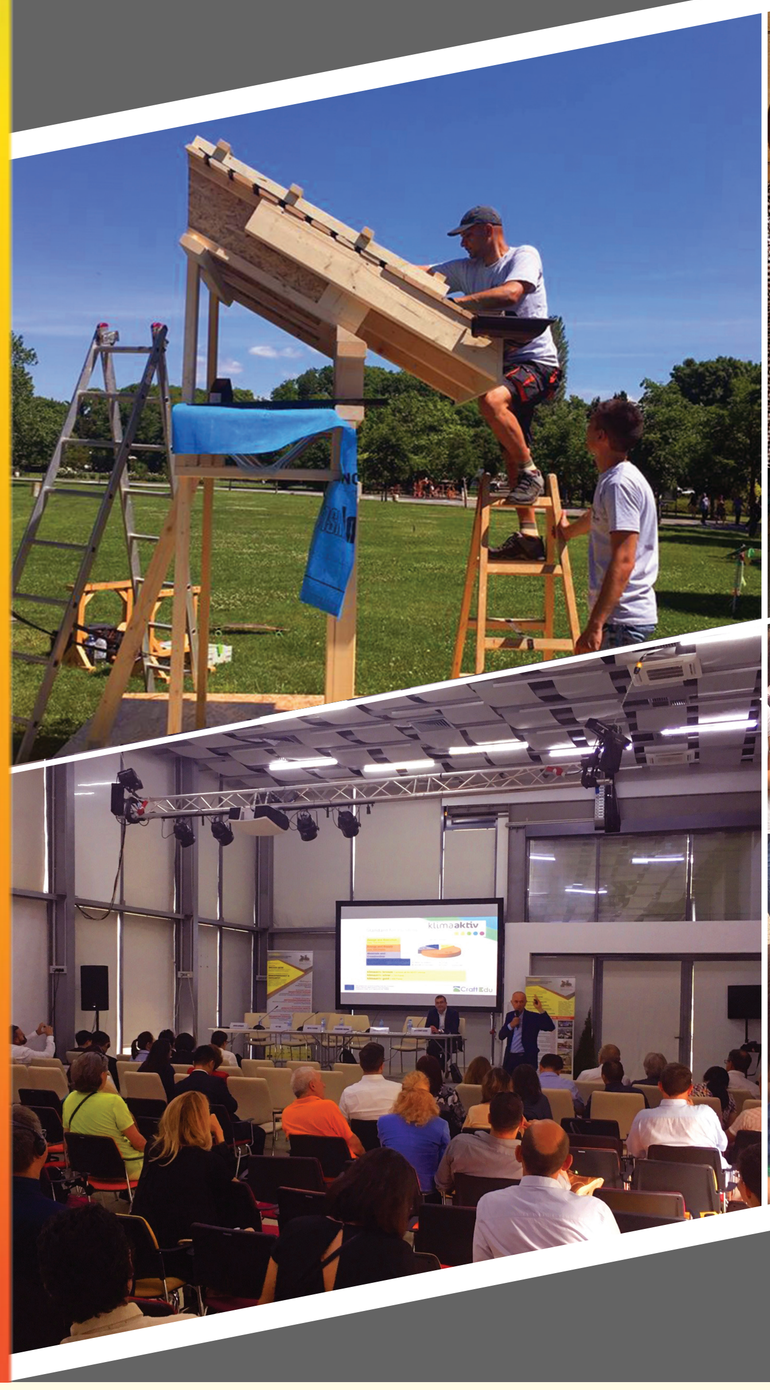

A Horizon 2020 project designed to increase the demand for skilled building professionals nZEBs everywhere...

Too good to be true, right? Unfortunately, we're still far from seeing quality and efficient buildings at every corner. The reason? Some say building professionals don't have the KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND EXPERIENCE necessary to deliver a quality project.

The truth is however different: yes, we still lack skilled professionals. But most of all, we lack INFORMED LOCAL MARKETS. What we really need are markets driven by the demand for quality buildings: ones that not only save energy, but improve for your comfort and health, make you feel happy and satisfied, with your money well spent.

Without informed markets, there will be no demand for skilled building professionals.

The nZEB Roadshow

The nZEB Roadshow endeavours to open up local markets by the simplest of tools – talking to people and letting them see, touch and feel the benefits of quality buildings. Operating a successful network of training centres in Southeast Europe, partners from 5 countries hit the road to shape local markets and build communities able to get the ball rolling - so that good nZEBs are really 'round the corner.

In the next 3 years, we'll take care of no less than 25 dedicated nZEB weeks in Bulgaria, Croatia, Greece, Italy and Romania. If that's not close enough for you, we'll have online content worth checking at www.nzebroadshow.eu. Or even better, you can become our new partner! For a kick-start, follow us at www.facebook.com/nzebroadshow and www.twitter.com/nzebroadshow.
